LIST OF DOCTORAL DISSERTATIONS IN POLITICAL SCIENCE.

A list of doctoral dissertations in progress in the field of history is annually issued by the Department of Historical Research of the Carnegie Institution, and a similar list for political economy is annually published, the list of dissertations in political economy for 1911 appearing in the American Economic Review for March, 1911. In one or the other of these lists may be found most of the dissertations of interest to students of political science, but a number of political science dissertations are included in neither of these lists. On this account it has been thought well to publish the following list, which has been compiled partly from responses received from the several universities, and partly from the published lists of historical and economic dissertations. A date where given after the dissertation title indicates the probable date of completion. For the year 1910 a list similar to that given below appeared in the August, 1910, number of this REVIEW.
